Study:	The Bible 101	My Roles in Life	Epistles	The Old Testament Part 2
Objectives:	To give the students a basic understanding of what is meant by the Bible being inspired by God and how that process works. Also, to equip the students to answer popular arguments against the Bible.	The objectives of this class are in two parts: 1) To help junior and senior high girls become more aware of the roles they play and will play in their lives. 2) To help these young ladies develop a positive self-image and to learn how acts of kindness can help win souls.	This class is designed to take a quick look at each of the New Testament Epistles as the teacher brings out the main point of each letter. At the end of this study each student should have a basic understanding of what each New Testament Epistle is all about.	To guide the students through a journey of the Old Testament beginning with the Judges and ending with the reign of Solomon as we focus our attention on one common theme: God unfolds His great plan!

Study:	Acts In Action	Ten Commandments	Ready To Answer	Me vs. The World
Objectives:	This class takes the students through a study of the book of Acts while focusing on the spreading of the gospel by early Christians, and emphasising the importance of personal evangelism.	God's rules do more than restrict - they give freedom. They are words of prevention and protection. The Ten Commandments mark the starting point to knowing God and living in society as we dig deep to see their everyday relevance.	This class will make the students more aware of the false doctrines that are out there and the arguments made to defend them. Also, they will be equipped with Bible answers for these errors so that they will be ready to respond when the opportunity comes their way.	This is a 13 week, Sunday & Wednesday study designed to focus on junior & senior high young men ONLY . This study will help these young men realize the battle Satan wages on their mind, body, time, and loyalty as they examine God's word for all the answers.

Study:	Getting Started Right!	My Roles in Life	The Parables	Headlines
Objectives:	This study is specifically designed for new converts as they examine all aspects of the christian life. Examination of these lessons should produce a growing, productive member of the Lord's church while strengthening their desire to live for God's glory!	David told his son Solomon, "Prove yourself a man." Manhood is defined through our acceptance of the roles and responsibilities God has given us in this life. In this study we will identify those roles, and how to make practical life application.	This class takes the students through a study of "The greatest stories ever told" - the parables . Each student will learn how they should respond to those who are lost, certain values and standards as taught by Jesus, and more about their relationship to God.	This class will hit all angles of the controversial issues of our day head on with the Word of God! Using the Scriptures as a guide, the students will learn how to think through these issues before reaching their own convictions.
